UNDERSTANDING INSURANCE TERMS

To help you understand the amount and type of insurance you should buy, here are brief definitions of some of the most common vehicle insurance terms. Not all of these coverages are available in every state.

*BODILY INJURY LIABILITY INSURANCE

Provides protection against damages that you or a covered person are legally obligated to pay to a third party as a result of death or injury caused by the ownership, maintenance or use of a covered vehicle. These damages may include medical expenses, lost wages and pain and suffering.

*COLLISION INSURANCE

Provides protection to your vehicle for direct physical loss caused by overturning or collision with another vehicle or object, other than an animal.

*COMPREHENSIVE INSURANCE

Provides protection on your vehicle for direct physical loss caused other than by collision, including theft, fire, wind, flood, vandalism and contact with an animal.

*DEDUCTIBLE

A dollar amount you select that is applied first to a collision or comprehensive loss. The deductible represents your share of the loss. The insurance company pays the amount of the loss that exceeds your deductible, subject to the company's limit of liability under the policy.

To purchase this policy, please give us a call at 1-800-895-2886.

The company's stock is traded on the New York Exchange (NYSE:PRG) and S&P 500 (S&P500:PRG).

LIMIT OF LIABILITY

The highest dollar amount your insurer will pay for loss under a particular coverage.

*MEDICAL PAYMENTS

Optional Insurance that pays for reasonable and necessary medical and funeral expenses for covered persons. These expenses must be incurred as a result of an accident involving your vehicle.

*PROPERTY DAMAGE LIABILITY INSURANCE

Provides protection against damages that you or a covered person are legally obligated to pay as a result of property damage caused by the ownership, maintenance or use of a covered vehicle. Property damage includes damage to vehicles, building, telephone poles and fences.

*UNDERINSURED MOTORIST INSURANCE

Coverage for damages that you or a covered person are legally entitled to recover from the owner or operator of a motor vehicle with insufficient bodily injury liability insurance. These damages include medical expenses, lost wages and pain and suffering.

*UNINSURED MOTORIST INSURANCE

Coverage for damages that you or a covered person are legally entitled to recover from the owner or operator of a motor vehicle not covered by bodily injury liability insurance. These damages include medical expenses, lost wages, and pain and suffering.
